Notes

(Basis of Presenting Consolidated Financial Statements)

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared from the accounts maintained by NITTOC CONSTRUCTION CO., LTD. (the "Company") and its consolidated subsidiaries (collectively, the "Group") in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law and its related accounting regulations, and in conformity with accounting principles and practices generally accepted in Japan, which are different in certain respects as to the application and disclosure requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards.

The consolidated financial statements are stated in Japanese yen, the currency of the country in which the Company is incorporated and mainly operates. The translation of Japanese yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts is included solely for the convenience of readers outside Japan and has been made at the rate of ¥133.53 to US$1.00, the approximate rate of exchange on March 31, 2023. Such translation should not be construed as a representation that the Japanese yen amounts could be converted into U.S. dollars at that or any other rate.

(Significant Items on Basis for Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements)

1. Scope of Consolidation

Number of consolidated subsidiaries: 6

Midori Industries Co., Ltd.

Yamaguchi Earth Engineering Co., Ltd.

Shimane Earth Engineering Co., Ltd. Ehime Earth Engineering Co., Ltd.

Fukui Earth Engineering Co., Ltd.

PT NITTOC CONSTRUCTION INDONESIA

2. Application of the Equity Method

Not applicable

3. Fiscal Years, etc. of Consolidated Subsidiaries

The year-end date of the fiscal year of the consolidated subsidiaries is March 31, which is the same as the consolidated balance sheet date.

4. Accounting Policies

(1) Valuation standard and valuation method for significant assets

1) Securities

Available-for-sale securities

Securities other than stocks, etc. without market quotations:

Valued at fair market value as of the consolidated fiscal year-end date (All changes in valuation difference are included directly in net assets. Cost of securities sold is determined by the moving-average method).

Stocks, etc. without market quotations:

(Va lued) alued at cost based on the moving-average method.

2) Inventories

Merchandise

Stated at cost using the first-in first-out method (The figures shown in the consolidated balance sheets have been calculated by writing down the book value based on the decline in profitability.)

• Real estate for sale

Stated at cost using the specific identification method (The figures shown in the consolidated balance sheets have been calculated by writing down the book value based on the decline in profitability.)

• Costs on construction contracts in progress

Stated at cost using the specific identification method

• Raw materials and supplies

Stated at cost using the first-in first-out method (The figures shown in the consolidated balance sheets have been calculated by writing down the book value based on the decline in profitability.)

(2) Depreciation methods of major depreciable assets

1) Property, plant and equipment (excluding leased assets): The declining-balance method is applied.

However, the straight-line method is adopted for buildings acquired on or after April 1, 1998, as well as facilities attached to buildings, structures and machinery equipment acquired on or after April 1, 2016 The major useful lives are as follows.

Buildings and structures: 5-60 years

Machinery, vehicles, tools, furniture and fixtures: 2-17 years

2) Intangible assets (excluding leased assets): The straight-line method is applied.

Computer software for internal use is amortized by the straight-line method over the estimated internal useful life (five years).

3) Leased assets

The straight-line method, in which the lease period is utilized as the useful life assuming the residual value is zero, is applied for leased assets of finance lease transactions that do not transfer ownership.

11 ANNUAL REPORT 2023 ANNUAL REPORT 2023 12

(3) Recognition standards for significant reserves

1) Allowance for doubtful accounts

The allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded at an amount of estimated uncollectible receivables based on past bad debt experience for general receivables, and by individually considering the collectability for certain doubtful receivables including loans with potential default to prepare for possible loan losses including trade receivables and loans receivable.

2) Provision for warranties for completed construction

The provision for warranties for completed construction is recorded at an amount based on the estimated compensation amount regarding the completed construction contracts for the consolidated fiscal year under review as well as the estimated compensation amount for certain construction contracts to prepare for expenses for warranty against defects relative to completed construction works.

3) Provision for loss on construction contracts

The provision for loss on construction contracts is recorded at an estimated loss amount regarding construction works on hand at the end of the consolidated fiscal year under review for which loss is expected, and for which the amount can be reasonably estimated, to prepare for possible losses from construction contracts that the Group has received orders thereof.

4) Provision for bonuses

The provision for bonuses is recorded based on the estimated amount of bonuses to be paid to provide for the payment of bonuses to employees.

5) Provision for bonuses for directors (and other officers)

The provision for bonuses for directors (and other officers) is recorded based on the estimated amount of bonuses to be paid to provide for the payment of bonuses to the directors (and other officers)

(4) Accounting procedure for retirement benefits

1) Method of allocating the projected retirement benefits to periods

In calculating the projected benefit obligation, the benefit formula basis is used to allocate the projected retirement benefits to periods up to the end of the consolidated fiscal year under review.

2) Amortization method for actuarial gains/losses and prior service cost

Actuarial gains or losses are amortized for the pro-rata amount computed by the straight-line method over a certain period (10 years) within the average remaining service period of employees at the time of recognition, commencing from the consolidated fiscal year following the recognition.

The prior service cost is amortized by the straight-line method over a certain period (10 years) within the average remaining service period of employees at the time of recognition.

3) Adoption of the simplified method for small and medium-sized entities

For the calculation of retirement benefit liability and retirement benefit expenses, the consolidated subsidiaries of the Company have adopted the simplified method, according to which the amount of payables for voluntary retirement of all employees at the end of the period is treated as projected benefit obligation.

(5) Translation of significant assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies into Japanese yen

Monetary receivables and payables denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Japanese yen at the spot exchange rates on the consolidated fiscal year-end date, and differences arising from such translation are charged to income.

The asset and liability accounts of the overseas subsidiaries are translated into Japanese yen at the spot exchange rates as of the consolidated fiscal year-end date. The revenue and expense accounts of the overseas subsidiaries are translated into Japanese yen based on the average exchange rate during the consolidated fiscal year under review, and differences arising from such translation are included in "Foreign currency translation adjustment" and "Non-controlling interests" as separate components of "Net assets."

(6) Recognition standards for significant revenues and expenses

In the construction business, the principal performance obligation of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries is to perform and deliver construction work related to construction contracts with customers. For construction contracts, the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries deem that performance obligations are satisfied as the construction progresses, and adopt the method of recognizing revenue over a certain period of time depending on the satisfaction of performance obligations, as the control is transferred over a certain period of time. For measuring the progress of completion toward satisfaction of performance obligations, it is calculated based on the proportion of the actual cost incurred against the estimated total cost of construction work at the end of each consolidated fiscal year (input method). If a reasonable estimate of the progress of completion toward satisfaction of performance obligations cannot be made but the expenses incurred are expected to be recovered when satisfying the performance obligations, the cost recovery method is applied.

For construction projects whose terms are very short, alternative treatments are applied, and revenue is not recognized over a certain period of time but recognized when performance obligations are fully satisfied.

(7) Scope of cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated statements of cash flows

Cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated statements of cash flows comprise cash on hand, bank deposits available for withdrawal on demand and readily convertible short-term investments with maturities of three months or less, which are exposed to minor risk of fluctuation in value.

(Significant Accounting Estimates)

| As of March 31 — | Millio | Millions of yen | |
|---|--------|-----------------|---------|
| AS OF IVIDICITIST | 2022 | 2023 | 2023 |
| Net sales from construction contracts to be satisfied over a certain period of time | 57,720 | 65,904 | 493,557 |

2. Calculation method of the amounts recorded in the consolidated financial statements for the consolidated fiscal year under review
For construction contracts, except for construction contracts whose terms are very short, revenues are recognized over a certain period of time according to the satisfaction of performance obligations. For measuring the progress of completion toward satisfaction of performance obligations, it is calculated based on the proportion of the actual cost incurred against the estimated total cost of construction work (input method). Net sales of completed construction contract are calculated based on such progress by multiplying total construction revenue.
Estimates of total construction revenue and total cost of construction work for a construction contract are based on the statement of working budget prepared for each construction.

3. Major assumptions used for the calculation of amounts recorded in the consolidated financial statements for the consolidated fiscal year under review

Major assumptions used for estimates of total construction revenue and total cost of construction work are possibilities of obtaining additional orders, construction material prices, quantities, and outsourcing expenses for proceeding with the construction project. For each assumption, estimates involve certain assumptions and determination by the construction site supervisors with construction expertise as well as experience in executing construction works.

4. The impact on the consolidated financial statements for the following consolidated fiscal year

Since construction works generally tend to span long periods of time, their major assumptions may be affected by situations such as change of construction conditions, design changes or reworks during the works, extension of the work period due to adverse weather, soaring material or labor costs, and involve uncertainties of estimates. Therefore, if such events necessitate the revision of estimates, they may have impact on the consolidated financial statements for the following consolidated fiscal year.

In the Group, construction work managers identify changes in situation after commencement of the construction on an appropriate and timely basis through interviews as well as inspections of construction-related documents including the statement of working budget, which are reflected in the calculation of revenues related to performance obligations that are satisfied over a certain period of time. Constructions believed to have potentially significant impact on the business performance are under intensive management involving executives both at branches and headquarters for precautionary purposes. Through these management initiatives, the Group makes an effort to reduce events with potential significant impact on the consolidated financial statements for the following consolidated fiscal year.

(Changes in Accounting Policies)

(Application of the Implementation Guidance on Accounting Standard for Fair Value Measurement)

The Company has applied the "Implementation Guidance on Accounting Standard for Fair Value Measurement" (Accounting Standards Board of Japan ("ASBJ") Guidance No. 31, June 17, 2021; "Fair Value Measurement Guidance") from the beginning of the consolidated fiscal year under review, and will prospectively apply the new accounting policies stipulated by the Fair Value Measurement Guidance, in accordance with the transitional treatment provided in Paragraph 27-2 of the Fair Value Measurement Guidance. There is no impact from this change on the consolidated financial statements.

(Accounting Standards Issued but Not Yet Applied)

- •"Accounting Standard for Current Income Taxes" (ASBJ Statement No. 27, October 28, 2022)
- "Accounting Standard for Presentation of Comprehensive Income" (ASBJ Statement No. 25, October 28, 2022)
- "Guidance on Accounting Standard for Tax Effect Accounting" (ASBJ Guidance No. 28, October 28, 2022)

(1) Outline

The ASBJ Statement No. 28 "Partial Amendments to Accounting Standard for Tax Effect Accounting," etc. (the "ASBJ No. 28, etc.") were issued in February 2018, and the transfer of practical guidance for tax effect accounting from the Japanese Institute of Certified Public Accountants to the ASBJ was completed. In the course of consideration on the transfer, the following two points were decided to be further discussed after the issuance of ASBJ Statement No. 28, etc., and considerations were conducted and the results released.

- Classification of tax expenses (taxation on other comprehensive income)
- Tax effect related to sales of shares in subsidiaries, etc. (shares in subsidiaries or affiliated companies) in the case in which group tax sharing system is applied
- (2) Planned date of application

The Company will apply the ASBJ No. 28, etc. from the beginning of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025.

(3) Impact of application of the accounting standards, etc.

Assessment of the impact of application of the "Accounting Standard for Current Income Taxes," etc. on the consolidated financial statements is currently underway.

- 1. Status of Financial Instruments
- (1) Policies on financial instruments

The Group holds a policy to procure working capital, which is necessary to pursue business purposes, in the form of borrowings from banks and invests temporary surplus funds in short-term deposits, etc. The Group utilizes derivatives within the limit of actual demand and not for speculative purposes. In the consolidated fiscal year under review, no derivative transactions were utilized.

(2) Description of financial instruments and related risks

Notes receivable, accounts receivable from completed construction contracts and other, and electronically recorded monetary claims - operating, which are trade receivables, are exposed to the credit risk of the respective counterparties. Investment securities are mainly stocks of companies with which the Company holds business relationships, and are exposed to market price fluctuation risk.

Notes payable, accounts payable for construction contracts and other, which are trade payables, generally entail the concentrated due date for payments and are exposed to liquidity risk. Borrowings as funds for capital investments are exposed to market price fluctuation risk (interest rate risk) and liquidity risk.

(3) Risk management system for financial instruments

1) Management of credit risk (default risk of the counterparties)

The Group regularly monitors notes receivable, accounts receivable from completed construction contracts and other, and electronically recorded monetary claims - operating regarding main counterparties at the relevant departments/sections in accordance with the Credit Exposure Management Rules and the Credit Management Manual. In addition to the management of credit balances by counterparty, the Group works to early grasp and reduce recovery concerns due to the aggravation of financial positions at the counterparties.

2) Management of market risk (market price fluctuation risk)

The Group regularly checks the current market value of shares included in the category of investment securities and makes efforts to comprehend the financial positions of the issuers (counterparties) and continuously reviews the holding status of such investment securities by taking into account market conditions and the relationship with the respective counterparties.

For borrowings (interest rate risk), the Group manages the balance of borrowings in a timely and appropriate manner and procures borrowings mainly at fixed interest rates in order to limit the interest payment fluctuation risks on borrowings. The Group did not use derivative transactions (interest rate swap transactions) in the consolidated fiscal year under review.

3) Management of liquidity risk (the risk of non-repayment on the due date) relating to fund procurement
At the Group, the Accounting Department prepares and renews the cash-flow plan based on the reports from the respective departments/sections. The department also manages liquidity risk with measures such as the maintenance of liquidity on hand and entering into commitment line agreements with our banks.

(Retirement Benefits)

1. Outline of adopted employee retirement benefit plans

The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries have adopted unfunded retirement benefit plans to provide for retirement benefits for their employees. Half of the retirement benefit plans are defined benefit plans and the remaining portion are defined contribution plans. The defined benefit plans are lump-sum severance payment plans to provide retirement benefits by means of a point scheme based on service period.

In the defined contribution plans, the contribution is clearly sectionalized by individual and the pension benefit amount is determined based on the total of the contributions and the return on plan assets thereof.

In addition to the above, the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries are affiliated with the multiemployer plans of the Japan SOGO Employees' Pension Fund. As the rational computation of plan assets cannot be ensured for the multiemployer pension plans, accounting is processed in a similar manner as that for the defined contribution plans.

At the consolidated subsidiaries in Japan, retirement benefit liability and retirement benefit expenses are calculated by the simplified method. They are included in the following relevant items because of their immateriality in the consolidated financial statements.

2. Defined benefit plans

Notes

- 1. Contract assets are primarily rights to customers for revenues recognized based on the measurement of progress of completion in uncompleted construction contracts and are included in "notes receivable, accounts receivable from completed construction contracts and other" under current assets in the consolidated balance sheets. The rights are reclassified to receivables when they are invoiced to customers and the rights of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries become unconditional.
- 2. Contract liabilities are mainly advances received from customers on construction contracts and are included in "advances received on construction contracts in progress" under current liabilities in the consolidated balance sheets. The performance obligations are satisfied in accordance with the progress of construction and the contract liabilities are reclassified to revenue. Almost all of the contract liability balance as of the beginning of the consolidated fiscal year under review was recognized as revenue in the consolidated fiscal year under review.

(Significant Subsequent Events)

(Introduction of Restricted Share Compensation Program)

The Company resolved to introduce a restricted share compensation program (the "Program") upon review of its officer compensation programs at the Board of Directors meeting held on May 24, 2023. The relevant proposal was submitted to the 76th Annual Shareholders' Meeting held on June 23, 2023 (the "Shareholders' Meeting") and resolved at the Shareholders' Meeting.

1. Purpose of the introduction of the Program

The Program will be introduced to newly provide the Company's Directors (excluding Outside Directors; "Eligible Directors") with a compensation system to grant restricted shares separately from the existing compensation system for the purpose of giving them the incentive to strive for continuous enhancement of the corporate value of the Company and facilitating further sharing of value with its shareholders.

2. Outline of the Program

The Company shall pay the compensation to the Eligible Directors for granting restricted shares in the form of monetary claims, and the total amount thereof shall be 50 million yen or less per annum (excluding the employee salaries payable to Directors concurrently serving as employees). The Board of Directors shall determine the specific payment timing and allocation to each Eligible Director.

The paid in amount per share shall be determined by the Board of Directors based on the closing price of the common shares of the Company on the Tokyo Stock Exchange on the business day before the date of each resolution of the Board of Directors (if no trade is executed on that day, the closing price of the last trading day prior to that day) within a range of amount that will not be particularly advantageous to the Eligible Directors who will receive the common shares. In addition, the issuance or disposal of common shares of the Company and the payment of monetary claims as properties contributed in kind in the Program are subject to the conclusion of a restricted share allotment agreement (the "Allotment Agreement") between the Company and the Eligible Directors which shall include the following content.

(1) Total number of restricted shares

The Eligible Directors shall, pursuant to a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Company, pay in all of the monetary claims paid to them as properties contributed in kind and receive common shares of the Company which shall be issued or disposed of. The total number of the common shares of the Company to be issued or disposed of in the Program shall be 100,000 shares or less per annum (However, if a share split (including a gratis allotment) or a reverse share split of common shares of the Company is carried out, or another circumstance arises in which the total number of common shares of the Company to be issued or disposed of as restricted shares is required to be adjusted on or after the date of approval of this proposal, the total number shall be adjusted within a reasonable range.).

(2) Content of the Allotment Agreement

1) Transfer restriction period

An Eligible Director shall not transfer, put up as collateral, or otherwise dispose of the common shares of the Company (the "Transfer Restriction") allotted under the Allotment Agreement (the "Allotted Shares") during the period between the date of the allotment under the Allotment Agreement and the point in time immediately after he or she retired from an officer or employee position in the Company or its subsidiary predetermined by the Board of Directors of the Company or resigned from the Company (the "Transfer Restriction Period"). However, if the point in time immediately after the retirement or resignation is earlier than the day three months pass after the end of the fiscal year to which the date of the allotment of the Allotted Shares belongs, the Company may adjust the timing of the end of the Transfer Restriction Period within a reasonable range.

2) Treatment upon retirement or resignation

If an Eligible Director retires from an officer or employee position in the Company or its subsidiary predetermined by the Board of Directors of the Company or resigns from the Company before the period of time predetermined by the Board of Directors (the "Period of Service") expires, the Company shall acquire the Allotted Shares rightfully and without consideration, unless there is a legitimate reason for the retirement or resignation, such as the expiration of his or her term of office and his or her death.

3) Cancellation of the Transfer Restriction

The Company shall cancel the Transfer Restriction on all of the Allotted Shares at the expiration of the Transfer Restriction Period, provided that the Eligible Director continuously served at an officer or employee position in the Company or its subsidiary predetermined by the Board of Directors of the Company during the Period of Service. However, if the Eligible Director retires from an officer or employee position in the Company or its subsidiary predetermined by the Board of Directors of the Company or resigns from the Company for a legitimate reason before the Period of Service expires, or if the Eligible Director retires from an officer or employee position in the Company or its subsidiary predetermined by the Board of Directors of the Company or resigns from the Company for a reason other than a legitimate one after the Period of Service expires but before the Transfer Restriction Period expires, the Company shall adjust the number of Allotted Shares on which the Transfer Restriction is to be cancelled and the timing for the Transfer Restriction to be cancelled as necessary and in a reasonable manner. The Company shall acquire the Allotted Shares rightfully and without consideration on which Transfer Restriction has not yet been cancelled at the point in time immediately after the Transfer Restriction was cancelled pursuant to the provisions presented above.

4) Treatment of organizational restructuring, etc.

Notwithstanding the provisions of 1) above, if an agreement of merger in which the Company will become a disappearing company, an agreement of share exchange or a plan for share transfer through which the Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary or a matter concerning other organizational restructuring, etc. is approved at a Shareholders' Meeting of the Company (or a Board of Directors meeting of the Company if an approval at a Shareholders' Meeting of the Company is not required for the organizational restructuring, etc.) during the Transfer Restriction Period, the Transfer Restriction shall be cancelled by a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Company prior to the effective date of the organizational restructuring, etc. on the number of Allotted Shares reasonably determined in light of the period from the start date of the Transfer Restriction Period to the approval date of the organizational restructuring, etc. In the case presented above, the Company shall acquire the Allotted Shares rightfully and without consideration on which Transfer Restriction has not yet been cancelled at the point in time immediately after the Transfer Restriction was cancelled.

5) Others

Any other matters concerning the Allotment Agreement shall be determined by the Board of Directors of the Company.

Independent Auditor's Report

The Board of Directors NITTOC CONSTRUCTION CO., LTD.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of NITTOC CONSTRUCTION CO., LTD. and its consolidated subsidiaries (the Group), which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2023, and the consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income, changes in net assets, and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as at March 31, 2023, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in Japan, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of the audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming the auditor's opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Ernst & Young ShinNihon LLC

NITTOC CONSTRUCTION CO., LTD. (the performance obligations are satisfied over a "Company") and its consolidated subsidiaries | certain period of time. (collectively, the "Group") record revenues related to performance obligations that are satisfied over a certain period of time in their construction business, which is a major line of business, in accordance with progress calculated based on the ratio of the costs actually incurred to the total cost of construction.

Of consolidated net sales of completed construction contracts of \(\frac{\pmathbf{Y}}{72.697}\) million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, the Group recorded net sales of completed construction contracts of ¥65,904 under the method of recognizing revenue as performance obligations are satisfied over a certain period of time, accounting for 90.7% of consolidated net sales of completed construction contracts. (The Company recorded net sales of completed construction contracts of ¥62,761 million under the method of recognizing revenue as performance obligations are satisfied over a certain period of time.)

In applying the method of recognizing revenue as performance obligations are satisfied over a certain period of time, net sales of completed construction contracts are determined by multiplying total construction revenue by progress towards satisfaction of performance obligations, which is based on total cost of construction and corresponds to costs actually incurred up until the end of the fiscal year. Accordingly, it is necessary to reasonably estimate total construction revenue and total cost of construction, which are an assumption underlying the measurement of progress towards satisfaction of a performance obligation.

In addition to construction contracts undertaken by the Company being individual in nature, it is difficult to fully ascertain construction conditions in advance and in many projects changes are made to construction details, including construction methods and construction periods due to

(1) Evaluation of internal controls

We evaluated the design and operation of the following internal controls of the Company relating to estimates of total construction revenue and total cost of construction.

- · We evaluated controls to ensure reliability by requiring that the estimated portion of total construction revenue is calculated by accumulating information from materials such as construction instructions and quotations, and that the necessary approval for such calculations is obtained.
- · We evaluated controls to ensure a system for revising estimates of total construction revenue in a timely manner in accordance with factors such as the status of discussions with ordering parties, and that revisions are made in a timely and appropriate manner.
- We evaluated controls to ensure reliability by requiring that the statement of working budget, which serves as the basis for estimates of total cost of construction, is prepared by persons in charge of construction work who have specialized knowledge, and that the necessary approval for the statement of working budget is obtained from the construction department and other relevant departments that perform functions such as construction management, progress management, and logistics support.
- We evaluated controls to ensure a system for revising estimates of total cost of construction in a timely manner in accordance with factors such as the status of construction and the amounts of costs actually incurred, or changes in specifications instructed by customers, and that revisions are made in a timely and appropriate manner.

certain facts coming to light after the construction increased further due to changes | following procedures. in the market environment, such as recently rising costs including material and subcontracting costs.

Based on the above, we have determined that estimates of total construction revenue and total cost of construction as it relates to application of the method of recognizing revenue as performance obligations are satisfied over a certain period of time are of particular significance for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 and, accordingly, that this is a key audit matter.

We identified construction contracts in commencement of construction and conditions | which there was either material or qualitative at construction sites. Therefore, estimates of uncertainty over the estimate of total total construction revenue and total cost of construction revenue and total cost of construction involve certain assumptions, construction in light of factors such as judgments and uncertainties. Furthermore, construction contract amount, profit (loss) on uncertainty regarding estimates of total construction, construction details, and the construction revenue and total cost of status of construction, and performed the

- We compared the estimated portion of total construction revenue for which no contract has been concluded to basis materials such as construction instructions and quotations submitted to ordering parties after making inquiries of persons such as division managers regarding the details and basis for such amounts and inspecting minutes of discussions with ordering parties.
- With regard to estimates of total cost of construction, we made inquiries of the persons responsible for construction cost management as to whether the estimates need to be revised. We also inspected the "Business Implementation Reports" submitted monthly to the head office by each branch office and department, and examined whether the estimates need to be revised in light of the status of construction work and amounts of expenses incurred.
- We reconciled estimates of total cost of construction to the latest statement of working budget on which calculations of such estimates are based, and examined whether the details of estimated costs were consistent with construction deliverables and whether the estimated costs were calculated by aggregating amounts by type of work.
- We compared the most recent estimates of total cost of construction for each quarter with the corresponding estimates of total cost of construction for the preceding quarter and evaluated whether the details of material quarter-to-quarter changes were reflected in such estimates in a timely manner by making inquiries of on-site construction managers regarding these changes and reconciling these changes to materials prepared by on-site construction personnel related to revisions to the estimates.

- We inspected estimated costs for each type of work in the statement of working budget, and reconciled material estimated costs to materials, such as quotations, from which costs are accumulated to serve as the basis for such estimated costs. Additionally, we compared the costs actually incurred relative to the estimated costs for each type of work, and assessed whether or not actual costs have exceeded estimated costs.
- · We performed on-site observations for particularly material construction projects to consider if the status of construction is consistent with construction progress that we heard about in advance from construction departments or on-site construction managers, as well as with work schedules and details of estimates of total cost of construction.
- · We evaluated the accuracy of estimates of working budgets by comparing preliminary profit (loss) on construction estimates to the subsequent outcomes.

Other Matter

The predecessor auditor audited the consolidated financial statements of the Group as at March 31, 2022 and for the year then ended. It expressed an unqualified auditor's opinion on the consolidated financial statements on June 23, 2022.

Other Information

The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report that contains audited consolidated financial statements but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. Management is responsible for preparation and disclosure of the other information. The Corporate Auditor and the Board of Corporate Auditors are responsible for overseeing the Group's reporting process of the other information.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

39 ANNUAL REPORT 2023 ANNUAL REPORT 2023 40

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management, the Corporate Auditor and the Board of Corporate Auditors for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and disclosing, as required by accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, matters related to going concern.

The Corporate Auditor and the Board of Corporate Auditors are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.
- Consider internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for our risk assessments, while the purpose of the audit of the consolidated financial statements is not expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

Ernst & Young ShinNihon LLC

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Corporate Auditor and the Board of Corporate Auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Corporate Auditor and the Board of Corporate Auditors with a statement that we have complied with the ethical requirements regarding independence that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in Japan, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the Corporate Auditor and the Board of Corporate Auditors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Interest Required to Be Disclosed by the Certified Public Accountants Act of Japan

Our firm and its designated engagement partners do not have any interest in the Group which is required to be disclosed pursuant to the provisions of the Certified Public Accountants Act of Japan.
